Chapter II

Introduction

3. As provided under the sub-section (i) of the Section 7 of Chapter II of Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Science Act, 2010 (No. 13 of 2010), under the functions of the University it has been prescribed to affiliate colleges /Institutions. Therefore, in order to streamline the process of affiliation as well as to provide strict and appropriate guidelines so as to maintain standards of education, these Guidelines are being promulgated. These Guidelines have been approved by the Academic Council in its meeting held on 11th June, 2012 vide resolution on Agenda 03/H and by the BOM in its 6th Meeting held on 17th June, 2012 vide resolution on Agenda 06/O.
4. Before approaching the University for Affiliation, the society/trust should carefully read the provisions of Indian Veterinary Council (VCI) Act 1984 and the minimum standards of veterinary education prescribed by the VCI, which are currently in the form of MSVE (BVSC & AH) degree course regulations 2008, as fulfilling the norms, as required in regulations, before the affiliation and thereafter, shall be the sole responsibility of the applicant body.
5. It is advised that before approaching the University for Annual Provisional Affiliation, the Applicant Body should have duly appointed a professional as a Dean/Principal of the proposed college/Institution so that interactions on technical matters can be done with the Dean/Principal for better understanding of technical matters.
6. University shall not be responsible for any kind of delay in affiliation or delay in getting permission from VCI or getting inclusion of the degree in the first schedule of the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984.
7. The University shall be providing Annual Provisional Affiliation to a college till it does not fulfill the requirements of permanent affiliation as mentioned in subsequent sections.
8. Any college on Annual Provisional Affiliation shall be authorized to mention the status in the form of “With Annual Provisional Affiliation of RAJUVAS” on their signboards, letterheads, properties and other such documents.
9. Till a college is not permanently affiliated to the university as provided in these Guidelines, the college shall be authorized to declare its status anywhere as “Affiliated to RAJUVAS”. This is being prescribed in public interest and correct status depiction to the students.

10. These Guidelines are complimentary to the provisions in vogue or made in future by regulatory bodies like UGC, VCI etc. By no means, these Guidelines shall be overriding the provisions laid down by such bodies.

Chapter III

General Guidelines

11. It shall be mandatory for the existing as well as future institutes to abide by these Guidelines. Existing Annual Provisionally Affiliated colleges/institute(s) shall fit in these Guidelines automatically, depending upon the stage in which they are currently running. They will have to switchover to these provisions immediately.
12. Once, any institute is Annual Provisionally Affiliated, it shall be mandatory for that institute to implement the directions/advises of the university, failing which, such institutes shall be inviting penalty, which may be financial, disallowing future admissions and/or stoppage of affiliation.
13. Only those bodies/trusts/societies which have been accorded permission/ NOC for opening a Veterinary College by the Govt., of Rajasthan, shall be eligible to apply first for Annual Provisional Affiliation to the university.
14. It shall be the sole responsibilities of the applicant body/affiliated college to satisfy the requirements of Government of India (Department of Animal Husbandry, Dairying and Fisheries/Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi). The university shall only be acting as forwarding and communicating agency, without any legal and financial liabilities arising out of the matters connected with the applicant body/affiliated college. The University shall also be not liable for any sort of (full or part) compensation regarding any matter pertaining to any party including students and or staff etc.
15. Annual Provisional Affiliation shall be for the academic purposes only. The applicant body/college shall be bound to follow all directives of Government of India (Department of Animal Husbandry, Dairying and Fisheries/Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi), Government of Rajasthan, UGC, University etc.
16. The applicant body shall apply on the 'Prescribed application form' having an enclosed self declaration on a Non-Judicial Stamp of Rs. 1000/- (Rupees One thousand only) regarding facilities developed by the applicant body as per VCI requirements for the first year and preparedness for the second year and growth plan for subsequent years (Annex. I).
17. If at any time during the continuation of Annual Provisional Affiliation, the Government of India (Department of Animal Husbandry, Dairying and Fisheries/Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi) raises any objection regarding adequacy of facilities, it shall be mandatory on the part of the college to fulfill the same in the prescribed time bound manner.

18. Any punitive/suggestive/advisory action by the Government of India (Department of Animal Husbandry, Dairying and Fisheries) /Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi shall be binding to the college.
19. The university may appoint such number of visitors or inspectors, as it may deem requisite, to inspect any Annual Provisional Affiliated college or to attend any examination held by any such college or any other affair as the university deems fit. The visitors shall not interfere with the conduct of any training or examination, but shall report to the Vice-Chancellor on the adequacy of the standards including staff, equipment, accommodation, training and other facilities as prescribed. The report of the visitor(s) shall be treated as confidential unless in any particular case the Vice-Chancellor otherwise directs.
20. The university shall be empowered to institute an enquiry into the affairs related to academics/admissions/any other matter, of the college, for which it shall be mandatory to provide required information and cooperate.

Chapter III

Annual Provisional Affiliation:

21. The prescribed application form shall be made available at a charge of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) as Application Form Charges, to those applicants who have been provided NOC by the Government of Rajasthan for opening of a new private veterinary college. The person/body requiring application shall have to apply on the letter head and official seal of the body to which NOC has been provided by the Government of Rajasthan along with an attested copy of the NOC.
22. Application for affiliation shall be in the prescribed format along with Application Fees of Rs. 1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lakh only). This application shall be valid for only forthcoming academic session. If the applicant fails to obtain affiliation of the university/permission from Government of India (Department of Animal Husbandry, Dairying and Fisheries/Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi) to start the college by giving admissions of the first batch of students in that particular session, it shall have to apply afresh for the next session, by obtaining fresh prescribed application form and depositing application fee along with filled application form. Therefore, it is advised that application for affiliation should be filed at least by the month of August of the preceding academic session so that the University gets ample time to process, inspect and recommend. Nevertheless, the University does not guarantee any time limit of process to the applicant.
23. Applicants should have submitted all the required documents to the Government of Rajasthan as per the terms and conditions of

- the NOC, before applying for affiliation. They shall have to enclose a proof of it along with an attested copy of each document at the time of the application; otherwise, the application shall be rejected.
24. Incomplete application shall be rejected and fee forfeited, however, applicant shall be free to file fresh application.
 25. The application fee shall be non refundable, even in cases of withdrawal of application, rejection of application and university deciding to not to grant affiliation.
 26. When the first year requirements are completely met, the management of the proposed college will file the application, make a presentation of the facilities to the university authorities, submit a video CD of the available facilities and invite the inspection team of the university. If the facilities are seemingly inadequate, the applicant body shall be communicated so during the presentation and in writing also. In such a case, the applicant body shall develop adequate facilities and again make a presentation, with fresh video CD to the university authorities.
 27. Consequent to presentation and viewing the video CD, if the university authorities are satisfied that the facilities developed by the applicant body are prima facie worth inspecting, the university shall send a team for inspection.
 28. The applicant body shall have to deposit an Inspection fee of Rs. 25,000/- to the university.
 29. The university may decide such authorities, who shall be present at the time of presentation for recommending adequacy/otherwise to the university. The presentation, however, shall be open to all faculty members of the university.
 30. The Inspection team (as constituted by the university) shall visit the college after satisfactory presentation. The team shall submit the report to the Registrar for placing before the next Academic Council meeting. The college /Institute shall extend all facilities and cooperation to the inspection team.
 31. If the academic council approves, the report along with academic council recommendation shall be put to the next Board meeting. Otherwise it will be returned back to the applicant body of the proposed college for improving the facilities and re-inspection on a future date.
 32. If approved also by the Board, the university shall issue orders of provisional affiliation, which shall be communicated to the applicant body within 4 weeks time from the approval by the Board.
 33. After deposition of the prescribed Annual Affiliation Fee, Rs 5,00,000/- (Rupees Five Lakhs only), the University will issue orders for Annual Provisional Affiliation.
 34. The applicant body shall then submit a detailed status report along with request to the university to forward their case to the Government of India (Department of Animal Husbandry, Dairying

- and Fisheries/Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi) for obtaining permission to admit the students.
35. The applicant body will be required to complete staff recruitments of first year as per VCI norms and inform the University.
 36. After receiving permission from Government of India (Department of Animal Husbandry, Dairying and Fisheries/Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi) to start the college/admit the students, the applicant body having completed the recruitment process, it shall invite the University Inspection Team (as constituted by the university) for Final inspection. The applicant body shall have to deposit a Final Inspection fee of Rs. 50,000/- to the university.
 37. At the time of final inspection, the applicant body should ensure that all the required staff (teaching as well as non-teaching) has been recruited and present during the time of inspection, failing which, annual affiliation may be withdrawn, admission denied and the entire process of affiliation shall have to be started afresh.
 38. If the staff and other facilities are adequate as per norms, the University will give a letter for admitting the students for that particular session, provided that all foregoing conditions have been fulfilled.

Chapter IV

Admission of students and subsequent Annual Provisional Affiliations:

39. The college shall not be able to admit students for that session without clear cut permission by the university (As amended vide decision under resolution 08/07 of the Academic Council's 8th meeting held on 9th March, 2015 and decision under resolution 15/D of the Board of Management's 15th meeting held on 31st August, 2015).
40. Before the end of first academic session, the second year requirements should be completely met. The management of the college will be required to make a presentation of the facilities to the university authorities, submit a video CD of the so far developed facilities on the date and time prescribed by the University. If the facilities are seemingly inadequate, the applicant body shall be communicated so during the presentation and in writing also. In such a case, the applicant body shall develop adequate facilities and again make a presentation, with fresh video CD to the university authorities, well before the admissions of the next session, failing which the college shall not be allowed to admit fresh students.
41. If the university authorities are satisfied that the facilities developed for the second year by the applicant body are prima facie worth inspecting, the university shall send a team for inspection. The applicant body shall have to deposit an Annual Inspection fee of Rs, 50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) to the university.

42. The university shall be free to take decision in consultation with the Government of Rajasthan regarding shifting of existing students of first year, when they come in second year (or during any subsequent year, as the case may be) to another college, as deemed fit, if the concerned College fails to develop adequate facilities for the second year as per the norms required by the University.
43. If the staff and other facilities are adequate, the university will give a letter for deposition of the annual affiliation fee of Rs. 5 lakh. After deposition of the annual affiliation fee, the University will issue orders for Annual Provisional Affiliation. The same process shall apply to subsequent years also.

Chapter V

Permanent Affiliation

44. After passing out of first batch of students from any college and after inclusion of qualifications in the first schedule of the Indian Veterinary Council Act, 1984 by Government of India, the college shall qualify for permanent affiliation, and university shall stop giving further Annual Provisional Affiliation.
45. For getting permanent affiliation, consequent to fulfilling the conditions mentioned above, the college shall be required to deposit one time affiliation fee of Rs. 100 lakhs (One hundred lakh) in the university. This amount shall be non refundable. This amount shall be forfeited, in case the college fails to fulfill the norms and requirements as per Veterinary Council of India, New Delhi and RAJUVAS, Bikaner at any subsequent date in such cases, no student shall be allowed to be admitted to such institute.
46. The University may prescribe the period of inspection and visitation in cases of permanently affiliated colleges.

Chapter VI

Withdrawal of Affiliation

47. Permanent Affiliation/Annual Provisional Affiliation granted to a College/Institute may be withdrawn or modified if the college fails to comply with any of the provisions/direction of affiliation specified by the university, Veterinary council of India, Govt. of India, Rajasthan State Government or any other regulatory body, at any stage of affiliation.
48. In case of finding deficiency (ies) as per Section 47, the University may also resort to reduction of intake capacity, to the level deemed fit, for one or more academic sessions.
49. The inspectors/Visitors/any other person authorized by the University, while submitting their reports/communication to university, points out any deficiency (ies) violation of affiliation provision/non-compliance of directives of regulatory body/affiliating University, the university may impose financial penalty on the institute/ college. In such cases the University would advise the concerned institute to rectifying the deficiency/violation of provisions/compliance of directives in a stipulated time along with the payment of penalty. If institute fulfils the above requirements in the stipulated time, university may depute the inspector/ visitor/ any other person again, to verify the remedial measures, taken by the college/Institution

50. The privileges conferred on a college by affiliation may be withdrawn in part or in full, suspended or modified, if the college on due enquiry, is found to have failed to comply with any of the provisions of the Act. the Statutes, the Ordinances, the Guidelines and Regulations or any other direction or instruction of the/University/ Statutory/ Regulatory body concerned, or failed to observe any of the conditions of affiliation, or has conducted itself in a manner prejudicial to the academic and administrative standards and interests of the University.
51. When an affiliated college ceases to function or is shifted to a different location or is transferred to a different Society, Trust, individual or a group of individuals without the prior approval of the University, the affiliation granted to the college shall lapse automatically in such a case and it shall be treated as a new college for the purposes of future affiliation. The University in consultation with the Government shall have to alleviate the educational future of the affected students in an appropriate manner as per its decision.
52. The University on its own, on the basis of any complaint or any other information or report from any other source, can cause an enquiry in respect of a college, and after giving the college a reasonable opportunity of being heard, may pass an order prohibiting such college from presenting any student then undergoing such specified course / programme of study therein to the University for the award of the degree concerned.
53. If the University decides to withdraw the affiliation of the college, or the affiliation stands terminated by the order of the University, temporarily or permanently, such decision shall not affect the interests of the students of the college who were on its rolls at the time of issue of the order till they pass out the normal duration of programmes to which they are registered at that time the University in consultation with the Government shall have to alleviate the educational future of the affected students in an appropriate manner as per its decision.
54. In cases where the institute/college does not fulfill the requirements or remedial measures taken are not adequate, the University may submit the report of such Institute/College to the Academic Council, recommending withdrawal of affiliation of the Institute/College.

55. The decision of Academic Council would be put up before the Board of Management (BOM) for further approval.
56. The BOM, before providing approval, may, if deemed necessary, provide a hearing to the college concerned.
57. If BOM intends to withdraw affiliation of Institute/College, the University shall inform the Government that the institute/college has failed to honour the terms and conditions laid down by the Government in its NOC and therefore, shall further request to the Government to withdraw the NOC issued to the Institute/ College and to approve arrangements suggested regarding shifting of students of ongoing batches in that particular College.
58. The college shall be deemed to be de-affiliated consequent to withdrawal of NOC by the State Government.
59. The University reserves the right to amend the Guidelines/procedures/fee(s), related to affiliation of institutes, in future without prior information to the institutions.
